

Zense Project report

So basically what ive made is a simple site blocker that blocks all the sites related to studies so that one can concentrate on studying while using Laptop.

Note that this web extension works only for chrome and had not been uploaded on chrome web store as it costs a sum.

To run the extension, simply open the extension window in chrome, click on developer tools and then load the extension downloaded on your device through github.